

Lisa Jeskins Training

Engaging training for information professionals

Course outline

Train the trainer

Course aim

To give participants an introduction to the skills and knowledge required to deliver effective group training sessions.

Objectives

At the end of the course participants will have:

1. Examined the characteristics of adult learning
2. Identified their own learning style and discussed what this means for training
3. Created aims and objectives for a current training session
4. Considered different training methods
5. Started to design a programme for a current training session
6. Outlined ways to manage groups and discussed managing people

Content

- Adult learning
- Learning theory & styles
- Designing a training programme
- Managing groups and difficult behaviours

Course type

The session will include a mixture of group discussion work.

Feedback

“Insights into Lisa’s own experience were helpful to put things into context of my own training. She has helped to put things into perspective, enabling me to develop my own training plan going forward. Her training was a great example of how training should be run.”

“The entire workshop was conducted in a relaxed and enjoyable manner. Theoretical workshop principles were discussed clearly whilst giving lots of very practical information (hints and tips) that can be used straight away in any presentations. Really enjoyable!”

All courses are tailored to meet your specific requirements. Please contact me for further details.